

Yet, our experience teaches us, in all the universe change is the only constant. Thus, the way of harmony is to accept change. We make our choices in life--and our karma is to accept the changes those choices bring . . . Life is good...and life goes on.

Yet, our experience teaches us, in all the universe change is the only constant. Thus, the way of harmony is to accept change. We make our choices in life--and our karma is to accept the changes those choices bring . . . Life is good...and life goes on.

Yet, our experience teaches us, in all the universe change is the only constant. Thus, the way of harmony is to accept change. We make our choices in life--and our karma is to accept the changes those choices bring . . . Life is good...and life goes on.